ENROLLED, House Joint Resolution,

RECOGNIZING THE BIRMINGHAM SCHOOL OF LAW ON THE OCCASION OF ITS 100TH ANNIVERSARY.

WHEREAS, highest commendations are herein proudly presented to the Birmingham School of Law on the occasion of its 100th Anniversary; and

WHEREAS, Judge Hugh Allen Locke, a prominent Birmingham attorney, Judge of the Chancery Court, and President of the Birmingham Bar Association, launched the Birmingham School of Law in 1915 with the help of Mr. Bowman, another attorney; the founding of the school was inspired by a request from law encyclopedia salesman L.M. Harris for Judge Locke to tutor 23 young men who bought copies of Chadman's Cyclopedia of Law; and

WHEREAS, initially, classes were held in Judge Locke's office before being moved to the John Wesley Room at the First Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, in 1918, the law school developed into the Birmingham-Southern College Law Department under the leadership of Judge Locke, who served as dean; later, the law school became the Birmingham School of Law and opened classes at the Birmingham YMCA; when the Great Depression began, Judge
Locke moved the school to the Jefferson County Courthouse;

1 during World War II, Judge Locke doubled up on his duties to 2 compensate for the absence of teachers, and he and the school
3 beautifully weathered during this tumultuous period in 4 history; and

5 WHEREAS, following the war, the Birmingham School of 6 Law was approved for veteran's benefits and its enrollment
7 increased at a rapid rate; the Birmingham School of Law
8 employed only practicing attorneys and judges as professors
9 who only taught the area of law they specialized in, a 10 practice that continues today; proud of the school's female 11 students, Judge Locke supported the founding of the State of 12 Alabama's first chapter of Phi Delta Delta legal fraternity 13 during the 1950's; and

14 WHEREAS, in 1962, the written bar examination became 15 a requirement for all law students; shortly thereafter, the 16 law school celebrated its 50th anniversary in 1965; the law 17 school's leaders engaged in a decade long battle against 18 legislation that would threaten to close its doors and the 19 doors of the other two non-accredited law schools in the 20 state; following the death of his father in 1971, Huger A.
21 Locke, Jr., assumed the role of dean and led the effort to 22 save the state's non-accredited schools; in May 1966, the 23 Birmingham School of Law moved its classes to the Frank Nelson 24 Building in downtown Birmingham; current dean James J.

1 Bushnell assumed his duties in 2007 and has helped the school
2 continue its legacy as a top law school; and

3 WHEREAS, under Dean Bushnell's leadership, the 4 school implemented a senior seminar program that includes a 5 bar review course which prepares students for the bar 6 examination, began offering a Saturday full-time program for 7 law students in 2009, and relocated to the Judge Hugh A. Locke 8 Building, which marks the first time the school began holding 9 classes in its own facility; and

10 WHEREAS, it is a tremendous privilege to recognize 11 the remarkable accomplishments of the Birmingham School of Law 12 and its students and officials on the celebration of this 13 significant milestone; through the years, the Birmingham 14 School of Law has adhered to its noble mission of offering the 15 opportunity for a high quality, affordable legal education to 16 those individuals who cannot attend the traditional law school 17 for financial, family, or occupational reasons; now therefore,

18 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
19 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That the Birmingham School of Law 20 is highly honored and commended, and this resolution is 21 offered to its students and faculty in deepest admiration and 22 appreciation, along with sincere best wishes for all future 23 endeavors.
