SYNOPSIS: Existing law does not require a person convicted of a sexual offense to serve a mandatory minimum sentence.

This bill would require a person convicted of rape in the first degree, sodomy in the first degree, sexual torture, or sexual abuse in the first degree to serve a mandatory minimum sentence of three years imprisonment without consideration of probation, parole, good time credits, or any other reduction in time.

A BILL

TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

To require a person convicted of rape in the first degree, sodomy in the first degree, sexual torture, or sexual abuse in the first degree to serve a mandatory minimum sentence of three years imprisonment.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:
Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the sentence of a person convicted of rape in the first degree as defined in Section 13A-6-61, Code of Alabama 1975, sodomy in the first degree as defined in Section 13A-6-63, Code of Alabama 1975, sexual torture as defined in Section 13A-6-65.1, Code of Alabama 1975, or sexual abuse in the first degree, as defined in subdivisions (1) and (2) of subsection (a) of Section 13A-6-66, Code of Alabama 1975, shall include a mandatory minimum sentence of three years imprisonment without consideration of probation, parole, good time credits, or any other reduction in time.

Section 2. This act shall become effective on the first day of the third month following its passage and approval by the Governor, or its otherwise becoming law.
