13 A BILL
14 TO BE ENTITLED
15 AN ACT

17 Relating to asset forfeitures; to establish the 18 exclusive process for asset forfeitures in the state and to 19 repeal Section 13A-8-117, Section 13A-11-37, Article 4 of 20 Chapter 5 of Title 15, and Section 20-2-93, Code of Alabama 21 1975.

22 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

23 Section 1. Short title.

24 This act shall be known and may be cited as the 25 Alabama Forfeiture Accountability and Integrity Reform (FAIR)
26 Act.

27 Section 2. Statement of purpose.

1 The purpose of this act is to do all of the 2 following:

3 (1) Deter criminal activity by reducing its economic 4 incentives.

5 (2) Increase the pecuniary loss from criminal 6 activity.

7 (3) Protect against the wrongful forfeiture of 8 property.

9 (4) Ensure that criminal forfeiture is the only 10 process allowed in this state.

11 Section 3. Definitions.

12 As used in this act, the following terms shall have 13 the following meanings:

14 (1) ABANDONED PROPERTY. Personal property left by an 15 owner who intentionally relinquishes all rights to its 16 control. The term does not include real property or property 17 that is disclaimed through a roadside waiver of property 18 rights.

19 (2) ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE. Direct and clear awareness of 20 information, a fact, or a condition.

21 (3) CONSTRUCTIVE KNOWLEDGE. Knowledge that is 22 imputed to an individual where the individual would have had 23 actual knowledge but for deliberate steps taken to achieve a 24 state of willful, intentional ignorance of felonious activity.

25 (4) CONTRABAND. Goods that are unlawful to possess, 26 including scheduled drugs without a valid prescription.

1 (5) CONVEYANCE. A device used for transportation.
2 The term includes a motor vehicle, trailer, snowmobile, 3 airplane, and vessel, and any equipment attached to it. The 4 term does not include property that is stolen or taken in 5 violation of the law.

6 (6) INNOCENT OWNER. A bona fide purchaser, creditor, 7 or lienholder of property that is subject to forfeiture, who 8 proves by clear and convincing evidence that he or she is any 9 of the following:

10 a. A person who, at the time of the illegal conduct 11 giving rise to the forfeiture, has a valid claim, lien, or 12 other interest in the property subject to forfeiture.

13 b. A person who acquired an ownership interest in 14 the property subject to forfeiture after the commission of a 15 crime or delinquent act giving rise to the forfeiture.

16 c. A victim of an alleged criminal offense.

17 (7) INSTRUMENTALITY. Property otherwise lawful to 18 possess that is used in the furtherance or commission of an 19 offense of a law subject to forfeiture. The term includes 20 land, buildings, containers, conveyances, equipment, 21 materials, products, tools, computers, computer software,
22 telecommunications devices, firearms, or ammunition.

23 (8) LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY. Any non-federal police 24 force, or other local, county, or state agency that has the 25 authority under state law to engage in seizure and forfeiture.

26 (9) LAW SUBJECT TO FORFEITURE. Any act chargeable as 27 a felony offense under state law.

1 (10) PROCEEDS. Money, securities, negotiable
2 instruments, or other means of exchange obtained by the sale 3 of property.

4 Section 4. Criminal Forfeiture; Property Subject to 5 Forfeiture.

6 When a person is convicted of violating a criminal 7 law subject to forfeiture, the court, consistent with this 8 act, may order the person to forfeit all of the following:

9 (1) Proceeds the person derived from the commission 10 of the crime.

11 (2) Property directly traceable to proceeds derived 12 from the commission of the crime.

13 (3) Instrumentalities the person used in the 14 commission of the crime.

15 Section 5. Contraband.

16 No property right exists in contraband. Contraband 17 is subject to seizure and shall be disposed of according to 18 state law. Contraband is not subject to forfeiture under this 19 act.

20 Section 6. Conviction Required; Standard of Proof.

21 (a) Property may be forfeited if the state proves 22 all of the following by clear and convincing evidence:

23 (1) The offense constitutes a state law felony
24 subject to forfeiture.

25 (2) The offense is established by proof of a 26 criminal conviction.

1 (3) The property is forfeitable under Sections 4 and 2 5.

3 (b) Nothing in this section prevents property from 4 being forfeited by plea agreement approved by the presiding 5 criminal court.

6 (c) The court may waive the conviction requirement 7 if the prosecuting authority shows, upon its own motion, by 8 clear and convincing evidence that any of the following 9 occurred:

10 (1) The defendant died.

11 (2) The defendant was deported by the federal 12 government.

13 (3) The defendant is granted immunity or reduced 14 punishment for the commission of a crime subject to forfeiture 15 in exchange for testifying or assisting a law enforcement 16 investigation or prosecution.

17 (4) The defendant fled the jurisdiction after being 18 arrested, charged with a crime that subjects property to 19 forfeiture, and released on bail.

20 (5) The property subject to forfeiture is abandoned
21 property, as determined by the process required by Section 22 15-5-64, Code of Alabama 1975.

23 (d) Notwithstanding the prosecuting authority's 24 motion for a waiver of the conviction requirement, all 25 property remains subject to claims by innocent owners and 26 other third parties with a bona fide claim to the property as 27 provided by this act.

1 Section 7. Substitution of Assets.

2 Upon the state's motion following conviction, the 3 court may order the forfeiture of substitute property owned by 4 the defendant up to the value of unreachable property that is 5 beyond the court's jurisdiction or cannot be located through 6 due diligence only if the state proves by a preponderance of 7 the evidence that the defendant intentionally transferred, 8 sold, or deposited the unreachable property with a third party 9 to avoid forfeiture.

10 Section 8. No Additional Remedies.

11 The state may not seek personal money judgments or 12 other remedies to satisfy a forfeiture award that is not 13 provided for in this act.

14 Section 9. No Joint-and-Several Liability.

15 A defendant is not jointly and severally liable for 16 forfeiture awards owed by other defendants. When ownership is 17 unclear, a court may order each defendant to forfeit property 18 on a pro rata basis or by another means the court finds 19 equitable.

20 Section 10. Seizure of Personal Property with 21 Process.

22 At the request of the state at any time, a court may 23 issue an ex parte preliminary order to attach, seize, or 24 secure personal property for which forfeiture is sought and to 25 provide for its custody, pending the determination of the 26 prosecuting authority's forfeiture request. Application,

1 issuance, execution, and return are subject to the Alabama
2 Rules of Civil Procedure.

3 Section 11. Seizure of Personal Property without 4 Process.

5 (a) Personal property subject to forfeiture may be 6 seized, pending the determination of the prosecuting
7 authority's forfeiture request, at any time, without a court 8 order, under any of the following conditions:

9 (1) The seizure of personal property is incident to 10 a lawful arrest or a search lawfully conducted.

11 (2) The personal property subject to seizure has 12 been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state.

13 (3) The state has probable cause to believe that the 14 delay occasioned by the necessity to obtain process would 15 result in the removal or destruction of the personal property 16 and that the personal property is forfeitable under this act.

17 (b) Mere presence or possession of United States 18 currency, a debit card, or a credit card, without other 19 indicia of a crime that subjects the property to forfeiture, 20 is insufficient probable cause for seizure of the United 21 States currency, debit card, or credit card.

22 Section 12. Seizure of Real Property with Process.

23 (a) Real property for which forfeiture is sought
24 shall not be seized without a court order. A court may issue 25 an order to seize or secure real property, pending the 26 determination of the prosecuting authority's forfeiture 27 request, only after proper notice to property owners and an

1 opportunity for a contested hearing to determine the 2 sufficiency of probable cause for the seizure.

3 (b) Nothing in this section prohibits the 4 prosecuting authority from seeking a lis pendens or 5 restraining order to hinder the sale or destruction of the 6 real property.

7 (c) Application, issuance, execution, and return of 8 any order are subject to the Alabama Rules of Civil Procedure.

9 Section 13. Receipt.

10 When property is seized, the law enforcement officer 11 shall give an itemized receipt to the person possessing the 12 property. In the absence of the person possessing the 13 property, the law enforcement officer shall leave a receipt in 14 the place where the property was found, if reasonably 15 possible.

16 Section 14. Title to Property.

17 (a) Title to property subject to forfeiture vests 18 with the state when a court issues a forfeiture judgment and 19 relates back to the time when the state seizes or restrains 20 the property.

21 (b) Title to substituted assets vests when the court 22 issues an order forfeiting substitute assets.

23 (c) Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), title 24 to the property is subject to claims by innocent owners, bona 25 fide creditors, lienholders, and other third parties 26 adjudicated under this act.

27 Section 15. Pretrial Replevin Hearing.

1 (a) As used in this section, claimant means a 2 defendant, innocent owner, or other third party with an 3 interest in seized property.

4 (b) Following the seizure of property, a claimant 5 has a right to a pretrial hearing to determine the validity of 6 the seizure.

7 (c) Prior to 60 days before trial of the related 8 criminal offense, the claimant may claim the right to 9 possession of property by motion to the court to issue a writ 10 of replevin.

11 (d) The claimant shall file a motion establishing 12 the validity of the alleged interest in the property.

13 (e) The court shall hear the motion no more than 30 14 days after the motion is filed.

15 (f) The state shall file an answer showing probable 16 cause for the seizure, or cross motions, at least 10 days 17 before the hearing.

18 (g) Either party, by agreement or for good cause, 19 may move the court for one extension of no more than 10 days.
20 The motion may be supported by affidavits or other 21 submissions.

22 (h) The court shall decide the motion for replevin 23 within seven days of the hearing.

24 (i) The court shall issue a writ of replevin if the 25 court finds any of the following:

26 (1) It is likely the final judgment will be that the 27 state must return the property to the claimant.

1 (2) The state has failed to prove the property is 2 reasonably required to be held for evidentiary reasons.

3 (3) The property is the only reasonable means for a 4 defendant to pay for legal representation in the forfeiture or 5 criminal proceeding. The court may order the return of funds 6 or property sufficient to obtain counsel of choice but less 7 than the total amount seized.

8 (j) In lieu of ordering the issuance of the writ, 9 the court may order the state to give security or written 10 assurance for satisfaction of any judgment, including damages, 11 that may be rendered in the action, or order other relief as 12 may be just.

13 Section 16. Discovery.

14 (a) Discovery concerning the forfeiture by a 15 defendant is subject to the Alabama Rules of Criminal 16 Procedure.

17 (b) Discovery concerning the forfeiture by an 18 innocent owner or other third party is subject to the Alabama
19 Rules of Civil Procedure.

20 Section 17. Trial Proceedings.

21 (a) The litigation related to the forfeiture of 22 property shall be held in a single proceeding following the 23 trial of the related alleged offense. The trial judge shall 24 make all findings of fact for any litigation associated with 25 the forfeiture of property of less than ten thousand dollars 26 ($10,000) in value. Nothing in this act provides a right to a 27 jury trial for any litigation associated with the forfeiture

1 of property of less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in 2 value.

3 (b) Within 30 days of the seizure of property or 4 simultaneously upon filing a related criminal indictment, the 5 state shall file a forfeiture charge that shall include all of 6 the following:

7 (1) A description of the property seized and its 8 approximate value.

9 (2) The date and place of seizure of the property.

10 (3) The name and address of the law enforcement 11 agency making the seizure.

12 (4) The specific legal and factual grounds for the 13 seizure.

14 (5) Whether the property was seized pursuant to an 15 order of seizure, and if the property was seized without an 16 order of seizure, an affidavit from a law enforcement officer 17 stating the legal and factual grounds why an order of seizure 18 was not required.

19 (6) The names of persons known to the state who may 20 claim an interest in the property and the basis for each 21 person's alleged interest.

22 (c) The charging document shall be served upon the 23 defendant, the person from whom the property was seized, the 24 person's attorney of record, and all persons known or 25 reasonably believed to have an interest in the property, 26 including innocent owners and other third parties.

27 Section 18. Proportionality Hearing.

1 (a) At any time following determination of 2 forfeiture by the trier of fact, the defendant may petition 3 the court to determine whether the forfeiture is 4 unconstitutionally excessive under the Constitution of Alabama
5 of 1901 or the United States Constitution.

6 (b) The defendant has the burden of establishing the 7 forfeiture is grossly disproportional to the seriousness of 8 the offense by a preponderance of the evidence at a hearing 9 conducted by the court without a jury.

10 (c) In determining whether the forfeiture of 11 property is unconstitutionally excessive, the court shall 12 consider all relevant factors, including all of the following:

13 (1) The seriousness of the offense and its impact on 14 the community, including the duration of the activity and the 15 harm caused by the defendant.

16 (2) The extent to which the defendant participated 17 in the offense.

18 (3) The extent to which the property was used in 19 committing the offense.

20 (4) The sentence imposed for committing the crime
21 subject to forfeiture.

22 (5) Whether the offense was completed or attempted.

23 (d) In determining the value of the property subject 24 to forfeiture, the court shall consider all relevant factors, 25 including all of the following:

26 (1) The fair market value of the property.

1 (2) The value of the property to the defendant, 2 including hardship to the defendant if the forfeiture is 3 realized and if the forfeiture would deprive the property 4 owner of his or her livelihood.

5 (3) The hardship from the loss of a primary
6 residence, motor vehicle, or other property to the defendant's 7 family members or others if the property is forfeited.

8 (e) The court may not consider the value of the 9 property to the state in determining whether the forfeiture of 10 an instrumentality is constitutionally excessive.

11 Section 19. Secured Interest.

12 (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, 13 property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is not 14 subject to forfeiture. A person claiming a security interest 15 must establish by a preponderance of the evidence the validity 16 of the interest perfected under Article 9A of Title 7 of the 17 Code of Alabama 1975, or a lease or rental agreement.

18 (b) The prosecuting authority shall summarily return 19 seized property to the person with the bona fide security 20 interest, up to the value of the secured interest.

21 (c) If the person alleges a valid security interest 22 but the state seeks to proceed with the forfeiture against the 23 property, the state shall prove by a preponderance of the 24 evidence that the person had actual knowledge of the 25 underlying crime giving rise to the forfeiture.

26 Section 20. Third Party Claims.

1 (a) Any person, other than the defendant, asserting 2 a legal interest in property which has been seized or 3 restrained, at any time up until 90 days after the criminal 4 conviction, may petition the court for a hearing to adjudicate 5 the validity of the person's alleged interest in the property.
6 The hearing shall be held before the court alone, without a 7 jury.

8 (b) The petition shall be signed by the petitioner 9 under penalty of perjury and shall set forth all of the 10 following:

11 (1) The nature and extent of the petitioner's right, 12 title, or interest in the property.

13 (2) The time and circumstances of the petitioner's 14 acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property.

15 (3) Any additional facts supporting the petitioner's 16 claim.

17 (4) The relief sought.

18 (c) The hearing on the petition, to the extent 19 practicable and consistent with the interests of justice, 20 shall be held within 60 days of the filing of the petition.
21 The court may consolidate the hearing on the petition with a 22 hearing on any other petition or motion filed by a person 23 other than the defendant under this subsection.

24 (d) At the hearing, the petitioner may testify and 25 present evidence and witnesses on the petitioner's own behalf 26 and cross-examine witnesses who appear at the hearing. The 27 state may present evidence and witnesses in rebuttal and in

1 defense of its claim to the property and cross-examine 2 witnesses who appear at the hearing.

3 (e) A court shall rule on the petition within 14 4 days of the hearing.

5 (f) The petitioner who has an ownership interest in 6 property subject to forfeiture existing at the time the 7 illegal conduct giving rise to forfeiture occurred and who 8 claims to be an innocent owner or other third party with an 9 interest in the property bears the burden of proving by clear 10 and convincing evidence that the petitioner has a legal right, 11 title, or interest in the property seized under this act.

12 (g) If subsection (f) is satisfied and the state 13 seeks to proceed with the forfeiture against the property, the 14 state shall prove by clear and convincing evidence that the 15 petitioner consented to the use of the property with actual or 16 constructive knowledge that it would be or was used for the 17 underlying crime giving rise to the forfeiture.

18 (h) A petitioner who acquired an ownership interest 19 in property subject to forfeiture after the commission of a 20 crime giving rise to the forfeiture and who claims to be an 21 innocent owner or other third party with an interest in the 22 property bears the burden of proving by clear and convincing 23 evidence that the petitioner has a legal right, title, or 24 interest in the property seized under this act.

25 (i) If subsection (h) is satisfied and the state
26 seeks to proceed with the forfeiture against the property, the 27 state shall prove by clear and convincing evidence that at the 1 time the petitioner acquired the property either of the 2 following were true:

3 (1) The petitioner had actual or constructive 4 knowledge that the property was an instrumentality or the 5 proceeds of a felonious act subjecting it to forfeiture.

6 (2) The petitioner was not a bona fide purchaser 7 without notice of any defect in title and for valuable 8 consideration.

9 (j) If the state fails to meet its burden in 10 subsections (g) and (i), the court shall find that the 11 petitioner is an innocent owner and shall order the state to 12 relinquish all claims of title to the property and return the 13 property to the innocent owner within a reasonable period not 14 to exceed five days.

15 (k) The defendant or convicted offender may invoke 16 the right against self-incrimination or the marital privilege 17 during the forfeiture-related stage of the prosecution. The 18 trier of fact at the hearing may draw an adverse inference 19 from the invocation of the right or privilege.

20 Section 21. Appeal.

21 A party to forfeiture litigation, including a 22 criminal defendant, a petitioner seeking innocent owner 23 status, or a petitioner for replevin, may appeal the court's 24 decision regarding the seizure or forfeiture of property under 25 this act. The appeal may be on an interlocutory basis.

26 Section 22. Disposition of Property and Proceeds.

1 (a) At any time when unclaimed property or 2 contraband held for evidentiary purposes is no longer needed 3 for that purpose, the court may order it be delivered to the 4 prosecuting or seizing agency within 30 days, or, in the case 5 of contraband, be destroyed within 30 days.

6 (b) If the forfeiture is granted, the court may 7 order the property be delivered to the prosecuting or seizing 8 agency within 30 days.

9 (c) If the forfeiture is denied, the court must 10 order the property be returned to the person from whom the 11 property was seized within a reasonable period, not to exceed 12 five days.

13 (d) Upon motion, the court may order that a portion 14 of the currency seized or proceeds from the sale of forfeited 15 property be used to pay reasonable non-personnel expenses for 16 the seizure, storage, and maintenance of any forfeited
17 property.

18 (e) (1) The prosecuting or seizing agency shall 19 dispose of all non-currency forfeited property. The sale 20 proceeds and forfeited currency shall be distributed in the 21 following order:

22 a. To pay all outstanding recorded liens on the 23 forfeited property.

24 b. To pay reasonable non-personnel expenses to 25 comply with an order of the court.

26 c. The remaining proceeds from the sale or 27 distribution shall be awarded by the court pursuant to a

1 recommendation by the state on a pro rata share to the 2 participating law enforcement agencies, the prosecuting entity 3 that pursued the action, and as payment of restitution to any 4 victims of the underlying offense.

5 (2) Any proceeds from sales authorized by this 6 section awarded by the court to a county or municipal law 7 enforcement agency shall be deposited into the respective 8 county or municipal general fund and made available to the 9 appropriate law enforcement agency upon requisition of the 10 chief law enforcement official of the agency. Any monies or 11 proceeds authorized by this act and ordered by the court to be 12 distributed to the district attorney shall be deposited into 13 the district attorney's solicitor's fund to be expended for 14 law enforcement purposes.

15 (f) Abandoned property or property seized from an 16 owner who fled the jurisdiction shall be delivered to the 17 State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall dispose of all such 18 non-currency property in accordance with state law. The sale
19 proceeds and currency shall be deposited into the State 20 General Fund.

21 Section 23. Prohibition on Retaining Property; Sale
22 Restrictions.

23 No law enforcement agency may retain forfeited or 24 abandoned non-currency property for its own use or sell it, 25 directly or indirectly, to any employee of the agency, to a 26 person related to an employee by blood or marriage, or to 27 another law enforcement agency.

1 Section 24. Return of Property, Damages, and Costs.

2 (a) The law enforcement agency that holds the 3 property shall return the property to the owner or other 4 prevailing claimant within a reasonable period of time not to 5 exceed five days after judgment in favor of that person.

6 (b) The law enforcement agency that holds the 7 property is responsible for any damages, storage fees, and 8 related costs applicable to property returned under subsection 9 (a).

10 Section 25. Adoption, Joint Task Forces and Receipt 11 of Payment of Forfeiture Proceeds from the Federal Government.

12 (a) A law enforcement agency shall not refer,
13 transfer, or otherwise relinquish possession of property
14 seized under state law to a federal agency by way of adoption 15 of the seized property or other means by the federal agency 16 for the purpose of the property's forfeiture under the federal 17 Controlled Substances Act.

18 (b) A law enforcement agency or participant in a 19 joint task force with the federal government or other 20 multijurisdictional collaboration with the federal government 21 shall not accept payment of any kind or distribution of 22 forfeiture proceeds or property resulting from a joint task 23 force with the federal government or other multijurisdictional 24 collaboration with the federal government unless the aggregate 25 net equity value of the property or currency forfeited in a 26 case exceeds one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), 27 excluding the value of contraband.

1 (c) Nothing in subsection (a) or (b) shall be 2 construed to restrict a law enforcement agency from acting 3 alone or collaborating with a federal agency or other agency 4 to seize contraband or property a law enforcement agent has 5 probable cause to believe is the proceeds or instruments of a 6 crime that subjects the property to forfeiture.

7 (d) Nothing in subsection (a) or (b) shall be 8 construed to prohibit the federal government from seizing 9 property and seeking forfeiture under federal law.

10 Section 26. Reporting.

11 (a) The Attorney General shall establish and 12 maintain a case tracking system and searchable public website 13 that includes the following information about property seized
