8 SYNOPSIS: Existing law provides requirements for 9 establishing residency for purposes of admission
10 and tuition at public institutions of higher
11 education.

12 This bill would provide that a student who 13 is the minor child of a military service member 14 stationed in Alabama may register for enrollment at 15 an Alabama public institution of higher education
16 as a resident student, and shall continue to be 17 considered as an in-state resident for purposes of 18 matriculation at the institution even if that 19 military service member receives orders for 20 transfer to an out-of-state duty station, provided 21 the student maintains continuous enrollment at that 22 institution.

23 This bill would also require public
24 institutions of higher education to consider a 25 military service member stationed in Alabama, as 26 well as his or her spouse and minor children, to be 27 resident students regardless of whether the

1 military service member is under orders to attend
2 schooling.
